About me

I am passionate about technology and continuous learning. Full Stack developer with good knowledge of Front End and Back End. My stack includes Html - Css - React - Redux - JavaScript - TypeScript - Node - MongoDB - MySql. My goal is always to achieve an attractive and user-friendly application. I have advanced knowledge of English. I have extensive experience in other areas working for large and medium-sized companies. This gave me the possibility of developing my soft skills and at the same time knowing first-hand the answers that a user expects from software. My goal is to contribute my knowledge and my motivation as a developer!
